

Ways to Make a Lasting Parenting Impression

- 1 Use discipline not as punishment but so your child learns self-discipline later.
- 2 Let your child make age-appropriate choices with your guidance.
- 3 Be a good role model to help teach your child good character and values.
- 4 Humor helps throughout life. Allow yourselves to laugh at the little things.
- 5 Teach good friendship skills and peaceful ways to resolve conflict.
- 6 Allow your child to learn from mistakes, imperfection and disappointment.
- 7 Be a coach, not a critic. This helps your child develop a positive inner voice.
- 8 Tell and show your child often that you love and accept her for who she is.
- 9 Teach your child skills and tools to effectively manage his emotions.
- 10 Keep family traditions and create positive memories with your child.
- 11 Follow a daily routine to help your child feel more secure and organized.
- 12 Show interest in your child's education and activities at every age.

© Life'sGreat!

www.zimmy.com
Product #P-7112

The Family Resource Center
1111 Broad Street, Suite 300
P.O. Box 282
Camden, SC
Office: 803/425-4357
Hotline: 1-800-585-4455